Quotes:

"an absolute treasure." -The Boston Globe

"Lockgroove's dense, full-on sound invites comparison to Brian Eno's "Music for Airports" -- as performed by a fighter jet squadron." -The Boston Globe

"Compass matches harsh distortion buzz with sparkling synth / drum loops for a heady brew that goes down nice and thick." -Skyway

About 3.5eps:

SharkAttack! Music plunges a foot into the chilly waters of CD manufacturing with this 11-song introduction to the SharkAttack! sound. This release, the first installation of the 3.5eps series, features new music from Charlene, Compass, HelloAttack! (no relation), and Lockgroove. The compilation seeks to be more than the usual label promoting fair. Much of the album was recorded in the comfortable environs of DentedHead studios with the bands dividing up recording tasks between themselves. As the title implies, the release plays more like a series of EPs as opposed to a typical compilation record. Think of it as three and a half EPs for the price of one. It's a deal my friend. A bargain.
